Pointy Dog Dance Co. provides an opportunity for dedicated young dancers to train, create and perform together. Running for over 15 years, the company work with professional dancers and choreographers to train in contemporary dance technique, choreography and performance skills. Dancers aged from 13 – 18 years develop their creative and personal potential, performing a repertoire of both professional and student-directed work in a number of professional forums including Tempo Dance Festival, Auckland Arts Festival and their own end of year showcase.

To register for the audition or for any inquiries about the company, please email Jessie McCall at pointydogdance@gmail.com or message the company Facebook page: www.facebook.com/PointyDogDanceCompany/
